Hi Mike –

On July 2, 2021, 23-year-old sprinter Yasmeen Al-Dabbagh, who broke the Saudi female record for the 100m sprint earlier in June, was nominated by the Saudi Arabian Athletics Federation for a 'Universality Place' at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. Yasmeen is the first Saudi female athlete to qualify through a 'Universality Place.'

Yasmeen said, "I hope in hearing my story others young Saudi girls feel encouraged to get into sport and the world sees more Saudis competing on the international stage."
